Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Sharon, Shirley and Sherman Parrott, and we are richer because they live among us; and,

Whereas, The Parrott triplets were born to Charles and Ella Parrott on June 2, 1932, during the Great Depression, and will be celebrating their 75th birthdays; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Sharon, Shirley and Sherman will observe their 75th Birthdays with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as their family and friends gather for an open house at the Masonic Temple, McClure Hall in Pierre, South Dakota, to honor them and celebrate their lives and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor of South Dakota to hope that the triplet's special day in the Capital City be one filled with joy and friendship, and that it will bring them many happy memories:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 2, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join all their many friends and relatives in wishing them a very happy birthday, good health and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
